“ Dearest Matt, I just learned of your passing and my heart aches for your entire family and you sweet, funny Matt. Many times when I worked in my yard you stopped to chat and cheered me up with your sense of humor. One of my trees split in half from a lightning strike, you took it apart and hauled away for me. To my surprise it grew back. You had the magic touch Matt.

There are souls on this earth who have the gift of finding joy everywhere, and leaving it behind them when they go.

I like the memory of me Matt to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

I am so sorry, words will never and can never be expressed to have your child die. I know the pain and I am truly heart broken for the passing of your dear Matt.

So when tomorrow starts without me again, don't think we are far apart. As for every time you think of me, I am right here in your heart. Love never dies, love is forever and always.

If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane I walk right up to Heaven and bring you back home again sweet Matt.

I am so sorry that your Golden Heart stopped beating Matt.

Live it up with my Son Matt, he'll take care of you sweetie.

“ Mat - Larry and I are still reeling with the thought that you are gone. A word that I will always use to describe you is kind. You treated my husband and me with great respect and always had a pleasant greeting or a word to check in and see if we were ok or needed anything. Having you across the street from us brought us a sense of comfort. Not that we ever needed you for anything important, but somehow I always knew if I did you would be right there. Thank you Mat for the years of neighborly love, conversations, hellos, waves, jokes and a sense of I'm here if you need me.

Last night we went out to dinner and accidentally left the garage door open. When we came home and realized it, I remembered back to the time you knew we weren't home and had also accidentally left the garage door open. You called me and asked if you could close it for me. never again will you watch over us from across the street and that gives me great sadness.

Mat - I wished I had told you what I good guy I thought you are while I could still look you in the eyes. Thanks for being YOU.

You are missed xoxo

“ My heart aches over the loss of such a young, beautiful and vibrant man and my deepest sympathies go to the family. I pray they would be granted with peace and strength during such a difficult time.

“ My sincere heartfelt condolences to your family and those who loved him most. He had a heart of gold; a sense of humor that deserved it's own road show; and this world was a better place with him in it. Rest in peace my little buddy.
