

Winnie McMahon

May 25, 2021

Winnie McMahon, 74, who was known for her laughter and many stories, died on May 25, 2021. Born a Chicago girl, she loved her adopted hometown of Woodbridge, Virginia. It is here that she raised her four children with her beloved husband, Dennis McMahon and her mother, Hope, who both preceded her in death.

She will continue to be remembered by her youngest sister, Cathy Sexton. Winnie recently retired from Quaker Homes and enjoyed spending time with her family, Anne Marie and Mason Cannon, Erin McMahon, Charlie and Becky McMahon, Catherine Taylor and Christopher Reid, Kelly McMahon and Antone Taylor. She loved spending her time shopping and going to the movies with her twelve grandchildren, Michaella, Tyson, Aiden, Sean, Dennis, Henry, Finn, Brennan, Faith, Makayla, Chelsea and CJ. She also was blessed with a great-grandson, Kingston.

Always one to enjoy an outing, Winnie could be found socializing with her many friends at Sacred Heart Church, playing Bunko or praying the rosary. She will be greatly missed by all.

Please join our family in celebrating her life at her funeral mass to be held at 11 am on Monday, June 7, 2021 at Sacred Heart Church located at 12975 Purcell Rd, Manassas, VA 20112. Interment will follow at Quantico National Cemetery.

“ Winnie was always nice to be around. No matter what she always had a smile on her face.
So glad we got to share dinner for Aiden's bday a few weeks ago.

“ I too worked with Winnie for a long time, the better part of almost twenty years. Always willing to help, always willing to pitch in, always willing to make the day go just a little easier... Outside of Quaker, we also shared time - Book Club, nights out to the movies, and occasional 5:00 Mass and dinner out. We went to DC, we went to Williamsburg, we went to local shops for whatever adventure we could find. She was a good friend and a confidante. She was always there when I needed someone.

Winnie taught me, by her example, to stay close to my children and grandchildren. She always shared the stories of their times together and how much she enjoyed those times. And she left me with a lasting impression that those were the times that truly made her life worthwhile.

To Charlie, Erin, Catherine, and AnnMarie: Your mother was one of the best of people with whom I ever had the pleasure to share the things of life. She made it a point in almost every conversation to sing your praises, to tell me how much you meant to her. She will be missed by those who were enriched by her presence.

“ I knew Winnie when I worked @ Holy Family years ago. I remember her as fun loving, but mostly as a loving, compassionate woman,

“ What to say and where to start..... Leon and I have known Winnie for more than 30 years. For the last 20 years Winnie was an important part of our office. Important seems inadequate given the many, many hats she wore over the years. Front desk duties, office park management duties, accounting duties and production related duties to mention a few. As our company grew smaller during the last few years Winnie was cheerful and willing to tackle whatever the task at hand. She was rarely absent except for vacations. Her contributions to Quaker are immeasurable and were, and are, acknowledged and appreciated.

On a more personal lever, we shared the joys and agonies of raising our children. Their successes were celebrated and the occasional "uh ohs" were commiserated over. We shared a love of crime shows, books and movies which dominated many lunchtime conversations. Bunco stories and Gourmet Club recipes were shared.

Winnie loved her children and grandchildren, and great grandchild, and talked about them all the time. Her face would light up and a big smile would appear when she was sharing stories of time spent together.

To Anne Marie, Erin, Catherine and Charley - know that you were loved and cherished and brought joy to your Mom. Her passing came much too soon and much too quickly and it will take time to absorb your loss. So long as she remains in your hearts and memories she will be with you.

“ I enjoyed working with Winnie for 20 years. She was the most generous and kind person I have ever known. She loved her family and talked about them a lot. She played the hand she was dealt with love and generosity. God speed Winnie. You will be missed.

“ Winnie was a great friend in and out of the office. She knew everyone in the industry and was a wealth of knowledge. She knew where all the bodies were buried!!! Outside of the office, we did book club together, usually taking turns driving. We went to all the Sugarloaf Craft Shows that we could find and, of course, we HAD to do lunch because....we could!!! When we would meet at my house for either book club or an adventure, she would tease my husband and call him my pool boy if he was busy working...he says that he is going to miss that. Both Winnie and I each have an Erin and would talk about our kids and grandkids ad nauseum. Winnie gave me so many great ideas of things to do with my own grandchildren to make them feel special. She was so proud of all of her children and loved spending special time doting on each of her grandchildren, all of whom were lucky to have such a devoted mother and grandmother. I am going to miss her terribly but pray that she is at peace and enjoying her reunion with her beloved Dennis. Rest in peace Winnie. You have left a hole in our lives and hearts.

“ Working with Winnie for 20 years at Quaker Homes, I grew to love her like family. She rarely missed a day of work and was always at her desk before anyone else arrived. She was very proud of Erin, Anne Marie, Charlie & Catherine, and shared lots of stories about them over the years. How impressive that all four are respectful, thriving adults despite losing their father so early in life! I think the Catholic upbringing kept everyone on the right path. Winnie loved talking about history and there wasn't much she didn't know. She loved talking about the latest crime show or book she was reading. She managed a full time job but still found time to play Bunco, attend Book Club & Gourmet Club and participate in activities with the Silver Foxes. She couldn't wait to get the family tickets to a Nats game every summer. She loved your Thanksgiving picnics. And when lobster rolls were on the menu at Not Your Average Joes, she always made time to get there. Winnie, I miss you and hope you are enjoying endless Mango Smoothies and Lobster Rolls with Dennis and your Mom up in Heaven.

“ For over 20 years we at National Capital Land have shared office space with Quaker Homesjust about daily Winnie and I would be the first ones inin the morning (she usually beat me in) and I would usually forget my keys so she would have to let me in we would share what was going onand she usually would rib me about my republican friends on the Board of Supervisors.....especially Chairman Corey Stewart !!! I was always happy to share my tickets with her for Supervisor Jenkins annual Crab feastshe loved that event . I am saddened that Winnie didn't have more time to enjoy her retirement with her cherished family . She will be in my memory and my prayers . Rest In Peace Dear Winnie ! “ Winnie and Dennis and their beautiful children.....Anne Marie, Erin, Katie, and Charlie enjoyed many Church and community events, first in the Sacrament festivities, schools, and jobs throughout the area. Winnie was an especially hard worker, very bright, and the first to accept challenges in Church events. We will miss Winnie in all these activities. Corey Stewart will especially be happy to hear of the kind words. We wish Winnie's loved ones peace in the time ahead...and know that Winnie was loved by so many friends in our community.
