Alice - September 05, 2019 at 05:53 PM

“ I love my "Aunt" Alice. She was special to me even before I met her, as she would send me a birthday card with $2 in it every single year until I was... probably 18. Great stuff. I loved the stories she told me about the childhood shenanigans she and her partner in crime cousin - - my father - - pulled off. As I entered my senior age, she was a great role model, preparing me to accept the things we cannot change, with grace. Even the eye care. She comforted me like no one else in my family did. And we laughed. I will continue to thank her every time I think of her.
