

Amy L. Myers

October 27, 2020

Amy Leona (Hardeman) Myers, 79, of Manassas, Virginia passed away peacefully on October 27th, 2020.

She was born on February 25th, 1941 in Dallax, TX, to Ira and Sarah Faye Hardeman. She married the love of her life, Francis (Frank) Myers on May 16th, 1968. Amy called many different places home, including Hawaii, Colorado, Korea, and Iran, before settling down in Manassas. She retired from the PWCPD where she was the Administrative Assistant to the Chief of Police for nearly 20 years.

Amy enjoyed visiting friends at her local Moose and VFW, gaming out in Charles Town and Las Vegas, as well as spending time with her loved ones. She was whip-smart with a quick wit to match and had an undeniable spunky and charismatic personality that made her an absolute pleasure to be around. Amy was truly a one-of-a-kind woman who left a positive impact on anyone who was lucky enough to know her.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Frank Myers; her children, Michelle (James) Fleming and Jerry (Karen) Myers; her sister Reita Hardeman; her grandchildren Jessica, Bailea, and Jordan Fleming and Christopher and Timothy Myers; and her great-grandchild Avery Myers. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Bobby Hardeman.

A memorial service will be held at Miller Funeral Home, 3200 Golansky Blvd. Woodbridge, VA 22192 at 12 p.m. on Saturday October 31st, 2020.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly asks for donations to St. Jude Children's Hospital.

“ Aunt Amy was a gracious , kind and patient woman. I have many fond memories of holidays spent with her, Uncle Frank and Jerry and Michelle. As a child I was fascinated by her airless Southern drawl and understated sense of humor. Aunt Amy was always a woman of elegance and class. She fought her illness with courage and fearlessness. She will be sorely missed. My deepest condolences to all.

With much love, Angie Frazer Geiselman and family
