Andrea Yvonne Griffin-Tucker was born to Louise and Leeandrew Pitts on June 27, 1954 in Brooklyn, New York. As a child she was raised in Queens, New York. She was an active child, such as swimming, and spent ten years as a counselor at Sleeping Camp in Castill Mountains. She also spent ten years in dancing school at Cathy Dance Studio in Astoria, New York.

In her teens she was a certified Life Guard. She attended Laurinburg Institute, a private preparatory school, in Laurinburg, North Carolina where she received her High School Diploma in 1972. Afterward, she attended Tuskegee University in Tuskegee, Alabama.

At 46 years old, Andrea received her Master of Human Services in the year 2000, at Lincoln University. Andrea completed many certifications and accolades throughout her years. Andrea volunteered, fundraised, and helped establish Oxford Recovery houses, which led to an appearance on 60 minutes in March of 1991.

Andrea was married twice and leaves behind her daughter, Anisah Griffin; two grandchildren, Adonis Griffin and Anjali Griffin; and a host of first cousins in Burmingham, Alabama.

Andrea loved her family and friends deeply, especially her NA and AA family. Even though we know that Andrea is safely Home, we will miss her always and she will be forever in our memory. Her awesome Spirit has been imprinted on our hearts and souls.
