

Anne P Maher

August 9, 2021

Mrs. Anne Powers Maher (née Anne Glen Powers), 68, of Woodbridge, VA, beloved wife, mother and sister, died of cancer on August 9, 2021, in Fairfax, VA at Inova Fairfax Hospital.

Anne is survived by the love of her life, her husband of 12 years, Lawrence Maher; her son Matthew Delphia and his wife Rebecca Delphia of Fairfax, VA; her daughter Laura Davidek and her husband Scott Davidek of Zelienople, PA; her son Evan Delphia of Manassas, VA; her stepson Chris Maher; her stepdaughter Jacki Maher and her brother Daniel Powers. In addition, she is survived by her grandchildren Logan Davidek and Breanna Davidek and her stepgranddaughter Ruth Graham.

She is predeceased by her sister Ellen Powers Felty.

Born in Bayonne, New Jersey on May 14, 1953, Anne was the daughter of Janet Powers (née Janet Henderson) and John Powers. She received her Nursing degree from The University of Connecticut and was a Registered Nurse for over 45 years. Her latest positions were working in the postpartum unit and vaccine clinic at Reston Hospital, in Reston, VA.

Anne was a member of St. Paul United Methodist Church in Woodbridge, VA, the Washington Fagowees Ski Club, and the social committee of her condo association. She was someone who loved Jesus, life, people, traveling, cruises, concerts, holidays, interior design, boating with her husband, and spending time with friends and family, especially her grandbabies. Anne was always positive, full of energy, bright, conscientious, looked for the best in others and was perpetually kind. She was known for her generosity to everyone with whom she came into contact, whether they be friends, family, or total strangers. She will be so deeply missed by all who knew her.

Family will receive visitors on August 18th, at 4pm with service to follow at 5pm at Miller Funeral Home located at 3200 Golansky Blvd, in Woodbridge, VA. www.millerfuneralhome.net.

If you'd like to make a donation in her name, the family recommends Foundation for Women's Cancer, Compassion International and Multiple Sclerosis Foundation.

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." John 16:33

The memorial service will be available via Facebook Live. Those wishing to view the service remotely may send a friend request to Miller Funeral Home's page at Marc B. Miller to receive notification, or may simply go to the page at the time of the service.

“ To My Dear Friend, Anne
You are Gone from this World,
But Not from my Heart.
It was Better to Have Known You
Than to never have known you.
I knew Your Heart... Your very Big Heart!
“Love, Love, Love”!
You are now what you Posed as in
This 2016 costume party picture.
Another Angel in Heaven.
You even Won the Prize
the Best Costume
At the Ball!

Rest in Peace, Dear One!

“ We will miss Anne dearly, especially her vivacious energy and positive outlook on life. She always had a caring mindset, making sure that people were fed and entertained and genuinely interested to hear what was new in your life. She brought people together like nobody else and truly lived her life to the fullest. Reflecting on the gap that she leaves, we wish we could live our lives a little more like Anne. Watch over us in heaven, we thank you for the warmth you shared with us in our lives. Love, Chris, Verna, Miko, Bianca, Fiona “ Anne always seemed to have a twinkle in her eye and a smile on her face. I do not remember ever seeing her get loud or angry. She was a positive people person and the perfect one to host a social activity as she knew how to get things done. She made everyone around her feel at home. A very loving and caring person to Larry, her family and friends, she is missed.

“ Anne was a good listener. She really empathized with you. No matter what problem or situation I brought up, she had been through it already. She had a big heart and she was always willing to share it. Larry, I am so sorry you have lost your life's companion.

“ Anne was a positive influence in this world, and she will be greatly missed. Besides being kind and generous, she was naturally funny. She had me in stitches telling stories about normal life occurrences, such as being stuck in traffic on a snowy evening, or funny stories from her work or volunteer life. She loved to make people happy through her personality and through social events. She was spiritual and attributed all good things to God. Anne was a beautiful example of the most gracious way to handle adversity. She approached life with a positive attitude and she thought of others continually. From a family perspective, she made my brother Larry very happy, enhancing his life with loving companionship. They made many interesting trips together, and it's hard to find a picture that does not include the two of them smiling. To all of Anne's family and friends, and especially to Larry, I wish you comfort and lasting peace.

“ I'm sad sad sad and it's way too bad that my lovely sister Anne had to suffer so much before she left this world. Death sucks! I hate it! My heart goes out to her wonderful husband Larry, who shared so many wonderful moments with her. My heart also hurts for my nephew Matthew, my niece Laura and my nephew Evan, as well as for our cousins and the many people who knew Anne and felt better about this wild world knowing she was a positive part of our experience on this mortal coil. I feel strongly, that when my sister fell asleep on Monday, August 9th...she woke up in the next world and my sister Ellen was by her side and said...Hi Anne! Good to see you! I know we will all hug soon in the next world....but, until that moment comes...I will miss her.

“ Evan, Laura, and Matt - my thoughts are with you during this tough time. I'm so sad to hear about your mother's passing. She was the kindest person and always did a lot to help out her friends. When I was a kid, she helped me find babysitting jobs and when I became an adult she helped me navigate getting hired in Loudoun County. She even threw my bridal shower at her home. Her Christmas Eve parties brought so many families together and they were always a blast! When my mom and dad were sick she was there to help and comfort Cody and I. When they passed, she called to check up on me regularly. It felt comforting to know someone cared. There's so much more I could say. Anne Maher was a truly wonderful person and she will be missed very much.

“ Very saddened to hear about Mrs. Maher. I grew up with her as my neighbor and she was by far one of the kindest souls to ever grace this earth. She would always put together events for the youth to make sure we stayed out of trouble. Hurts writing this because I am still in shock. She basically was the mother to all of the children in her neighborhood and would not hesitate to to speak to you and always start up a conversation. I still can't believe this. Not anyone has a bad thing to say about her and rightfully so. My heart goes out to her children and all her family and friends. Heaven just gained a perfect angel to be with our savior and king. still smh...love you always forever..we viewed you as family. We will never forgot the Christmas eve gatherings that you hosted. Great punch! Lol. Rest in heaven angel. You deserve it. Condolences to your children.
Love always,

I loved Anne for her energy, her goodness and kindness and generosity. My late husband and Captain Larry had many years as friends in the Army. Then we got married and visited single Larry when we would go to Washington. I met Anne when we were all attending another "Army Buddies" wedding. I told Larry she was the one. He didn't need me to tell him that. They were married in a blizzard. We had so much fun for years after that. I loved her and will sorely miss her.
