“ When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure. I think of my brother-in-law as living in the hearts of those he touched because nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much. I'll always remember your caring heart my dear brother-in-law, your warm embrace that you willingly gave, and your contagious laughter and joy.

“ Words may not suffice to express the heartfelt sorrow that I feel for the passing of your husband and father. Love knows no boundaries. Even those that divide Heaven and earth. So whenever you feel sad, just remember your hearts are connected forever. Aunt Karen, cousin Katrice, and cousin Andre I am praying and thinking of you all and is here for all of you always. Uncle Gil will be in our hearts and memories forever. Love you all

“ Dear Family of Aster Gilmer,

I'm so sorry for your loss. I worked with Aster since I started at DSS in 2009. He always had a smile on his face and was always someone that could cheer you up. I remember several years ago having a hard time with depression, and I remember Aster coming up to me and making me laugh, and told me it would be okay. He checked in on me daily just to see how I was doing. It was a kind act that I will always appreciate and remember. I still remember these fond memories. He was such a great man, despite being a Cowboys fan :)

May Aster rest in peace

Memory Eternal to Aster Gilmer!

“ My deepest sympathy and warmest regards are sent to the family of Aster Gilmer. I worked with Aster for many years at Braddock Place in Alexandria, Virginia and at the RKB in Quantico, Virginia. I spoke to him before the COVID 19 pandemic closed the building and he was counting the days before he could retire. He is now in retirement with the Lord and I pray he is resting in the palm of hsi hands. Be in peace. Helencia Hines, co-worker. DCSAy
