“ Betty Lou Porterfield Norman

“ My parent's lived next door to Betty's mother Rosa and stepfather Arthur. Betty, her wonderful son Norman and husband Buford always took me out with them, church, dinner and I remember the time she drove Norman and me to a camp ground in Westmoreland county in her beautiful 1969 Ford LTD listening to a popular song "Down in the Boondocks!" She could really drive, we were flying!

Her husband came down later after work. I loved Betty and her whole family; they were my extended family!

She was always so proud of her son Norman and by all means she should have been, he was a model child!

Everyone thought the world of him - I am sorry to hear of both of their passings!
