

Carolyn White

June 19, 1941 - August 21, 2024

Ollie “Carolyn” White, 83, of Woodbridge, VA, received her angel wings and went to be with Jesus on August 21, 2024. She was born on June 19, 1941, to Walter Curry Hammond & Nathlee Bridgeman Hammond in Greenville, South Carolina.

Carolyn graduated from Winthrop Training High School, Rock Hill, South Carolina in 1959 and completed 2 years of business school after her high school graduation. She married the love of her life, Jerry J. White on July 6, 1963. With Jerry they had two children, a son Jerry Jr. and a daughter Jennifer Leigh. Her children were her most prized possessions which was obvious to anyone she encountered.

Above all else, Carolyn loved Jesus. Her faith helped her to look for and find the good in everything. Carolyn loved all people, and they loved her back. She lit up every room she walked in. Her smile was contagious to all who encountered it. Any person she passed whether they knew her or not would notice her and smile. She loved to read. She would consume a novel in a day. Family cruises (she was blessed with many) gave her many fond memories. Carolyn was a sports junkie. She loved her Redskins football and Nationals baseball, and she cheered for them no matter what. Elvis Presley’s music was her favorite, but she loved country music as well. She attended many concerts with her friends, and she would always tell the stories of what fun she had or how she got to meet them. Her husband nicknamed her “Monty” because she could always find a bargain. She was extremely smart and studious. From the mid 1970’s through 2020 she worked for various companies owned by J.D. Long. She took great pride in her work and the love she had for her work family was demonstrated through her loyalty.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her brother, William Robert Hammond, Father, Walter Curry Hammond and her Mother Nathlee Bridgeman Hammond.

Carolyn is survived by her Husband Jerry J. White, Woodbridge, Virginia, Daughter, Jennifer Leigh White, Woodbridge, Virginia and Son, Jerry White Jr. and wife Jami of Arlington, Texas, as well as her brothers and sisters in law, many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

“ Carolyn was like a second mama to me I met her through her daughter Jennifer we grew up in the same Church First Baptist church Woodbridge. I would visit there home in Montclair Va at various times and I remember specifically the fireworks on 4th of July at a local park. Carolyn had a way to make you feel like you belonged and I know it's because of her love for Jesus. I know she is in heaven glorifying God with my parents. Praying for the family. “ Dear Jerry and Family,
Just saw your Mom's obituary. I'm so so sorry! I remember meeting her at your birthday celebration a few years ago... She was a lovely woman and mother (she did a great job with you)! My sincere condolences to the White family. You are in my prayers and on my heart.
