

Charles Lee Bloomer

October 14, 2022

Charles Lee Bloomer, 74, died peacefully in his sleep on October 14, 2022 at his home in Woodbridge, VA. He was a 27-year veteran of the United States Navy, serving 12 years as an enlisted man and then 15 additional years as an officer. Throughout his life, Charles was a proud defender of the United States of America, personal freedom and the US Constitution.

Charles was a career submariner, serving on multiple ships, ending his sea career as a LCDR on the USS Kamehameha (SSBN-642). He completed his Naval duty at Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers Europe (SHAPE) in Mons, Belgium. Charles' devotion to the defense of the United States included 11 years of sea service and five-plus years of foreign service. While in the Navy, Charles earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and then a Master of Science diploma from Boston University.

Following his Navy time, Charles was a distinguished Senior Analyst for CALIBRE Systems, a government-business information technology corporation, from the mid-1990's until 2011. During that time he primarily served as the Project Manager for the corporation's Defense Information Systems Agency support.

Charles is survived by Connie (Evans) Bloomer, his loving wife of 35 years; son Charles, Jr. of Frisco, TX and daughter Nicole Smartt of Spring Valley, CA; step-sons Michael Dutton of Brunswick, ME; Jeffrey Dutton of Montgomery, AL and Andrew Dutton of Key Largo, FL.

A memorial service for Charles is scheduled at Quantico National Cemetery in Triangle, VA on Friday, October 21, 2022 at 10:00am with interment to follow.
