“ I was fortunate to have known Chuck for 38 years. Reflecting his passion for sports, and baseball in particular, he joined myself and 5 other guys in founding The Walter Johnson League, a "rotisserie" [fantasy] baseball league in 1987. Chuck was really good at it. And very dedicated. We concluded our 38th season this September. Fittingly, Chuck had a pretty good team in his final season, finishing third. Upon hearing of his passing, every one of his fellow "owners" had the same reaction. "A great guy, fun to play with."

Chuck and I would talk several times a week during the baseball season. Years ago we learned that we both grew up pretty close to each other just west of Philadelphia. So we had a lot of "common ground" and stories to share. He became a good friend. I will miss him dearly. Rest in peace, Chuck.
