

Charles Milton Swabb

January 14, 2024

Charles Milton Swabb, 84, of Dale City, Virginia, went to be with his heavenly Father and rest in his arms on January 14, 2024. Charles was born to Delmar Burton and Iona Dell Swabb on July 8, 1939 in Dewey, Oklahoma. After the passing of his father, when Charles was 8 years old, he and his mother moved to Sherman, Texas, where he lived until 1964.

Charles enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1963. He retired at the rank of Senior Master Sergeant in 1985 after a successful 22 year career. His service included tours in Vietnam, where he received the Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross with palm; Japan; Turkey; Germany; and Australia. After his retirement from the military, Charles worked for Northrop Grumman for 25 years as a Senior Systems Administrator.

Charles was a faithful and devoted servant of God. He was a member of the Woodbridge church of Christ for over 50 years. He faithfully served as a deacon and an elder of the congregation. He was often, if not always, the first at the church building and the last to leave.

Charles is preceded in death by his wife, Gayle, who passed away 2021. Charles is survived by his son, Kevin and his wife, and his daughter, Karla Anthony and her husband, Eric. Charles was known as “Papaw” to four grandchildren, including Philip Anthony, and his wife Chelsea of Avenue,

Maryland and Shannon Anthony of Hatfield, England and three great-grandchildren, Amelia, Jackson and Colt. Charles is also survived by his brother-in-law, Dayle Cantrell, and his wife, Vicki, of Tyler, Texas.

A funeral service will be held on Wednesday, 24 January 2024 at 12:00 pm at Millers Funeral Home and Crematory followed by an interment at Quantico National Cemetery.

“ Charles was a warm, intelligent, and generous man who would help my Clinic with our computer issues.
His wonderful wife Gayle was my office manager for several years. We miss them both. May Christ welcome them into Paradise for eternity.
Everlasting be their memory!
