“ So very sorry to hear of Chris's passing. We were coworkers at DCSE for a number of years. He was very smart and proficient at his job. I can't help but remember all the times we would have special office luncheons or holiday meals as he loved to help the Boss cook. We always counted on his willingness to volunteer to take care of the leftovers. Praying God will give comfort and peace to all his family and friends. 🙏❤️ Cecilia Blaine

So sorry to hear about Chris. I remember what a funny and extremely socially adept person he was. So funny and so sweet. I was glad we kept in touch through the years. I will be thinking of the family and I hope everyone is coping well. He will be missed. I just found out and am devastated. Such a gorgeous family. So sorry. He was intelligent, witty, gregarious, and talented.
