“ I remember meeting you for the first time and thinking you are someone that’s gonna change my life forever. You helped me get through my hard times and i’d like to think I helped you out too. Those late nights talking and driving around just getting to know the real you and not the you everyone expects from us nowadays. You showed me what it takes to be a real friend and I just hope you are at peace. It’s surreal not being able to call you one more time to catch up or force you to watch movies/ listen to my niche music taste. I hope you can visit me in my dreams again :(rest in peace to the most amazing selfless handsome man ☐

“ Daniel was the first boy I ever made genuine friends with in middle school and hearing about his loss pains me and I am truly heartbroken. Daniel, I’ll meet with you again someday. Rest easy now.

“ I won’t forget the last time we spoke. During a car ride home you told me how short life was, and how we need to take advantage of the time we have while we’re here. Always respected you Daniel, you’re a huge inspiration to me. Until we meet again brother

“ Dan was an amazing guy with the biggest heart. He was my biggest supporter with finishing school and other milestones. He had the warmest smile and kindest eyes. My heart hurts with his passing. I wish his family strength and comfort through this loss.

“ I knew Daniel a couple years ago. We were never really that close but when I was going through a tough time in my life Daniel always treated me kindly. I never got the chance to tell him how much that meant to me. May he rest in peace.

“ Daniel was an amazing person and friend. He was the type of person to always stand up for you. I’m going to miss seeing the Occoquan quarry together and talking about our lives. I’ll never forget how excited we both were to get our Security + certification. I recognize how privileged I am to be able to say I knew and cared for him. I just want to say that I am extremely grateful to have been graced by his amazing personality. He really always stood out.

“ Me and Daniel grew up in the same neighborhood as kids. I remember annoyingly pestering each other back and forth in elementary school through middle school. Our younger sisters were friends. We were never particularly close but I will always remember running around at the playground behind his house and him jokingly calling me a witch in the hallways at middle school. This news breaks my heart. I had hoped to meet up again sometime. Sending prayers of comfort and peace to his family and friends.
