“ My memories of David are long. His 28 years of marriage to my big sister. and his adoption into our crazy family make me laugh out loud. "I don't know these people" was his famous line. Well....we knew him, and he was a part of our tribe. I loved Dave. He was a better poker player than me. He taught me that good booze should not be mixed If anything water only...Him with his Jack, me with my Ice cubes & Tequila. He kept a secret - when we surprised homesick Bonnie in Germany with my "extra baggage" - which happened to be our mother. He also stood by me, and loved me, and supported me - always. He and Bonnie spent time with me in Toms River, in Baltimore, in Plainfield, and in Highlands. He was my friend and my brother...in law was a just an add on. His relationship with my father was true. And when the two of them abandoned my hot un airconditioned house in Toms River - to sit in the car with air conditioning -- I knew male bonding was complete. I will miss his laugh, his support of my lifestyle, his diplomacy, his love for our family, and the hours of great times that we had as family. I raise a glass to you David AKA 'Babe'. Tequila, Rocks...

“ I have many happy memories of Dave, my brother-in-law. Our time together at family Christmas parties and Memorial Day gatherings were particularly enjoyable. Competitive brainteasing trivia contests, billiards, darts, karaoke, cornhole and more made for great fun. Always enjoyed talking sports with Dave and joking with him about his EPIC support of the Pittsburgh Steelers :)

I remember fondly Dave's support during the untimely passing of my father during a family vacation. Ironically, Dave passed away exactly 15 years to the day after my Dad died. My Dad and Dave - there's a happy heavenly reunion!

To family and friends of Dave my condolences - I loved him too! Bonnie, my deepest sympathies. I told you before and I'll say it again, during Dave's most difficult days you were an angelic caretaker to the end.

Love you Sis!

Little brother, Greg

“ Although I knew Dave for these last five years, his open and positive outlook on life was his best asset. He was a mentor and an inspiration to me and many at the VFW and The Moose. He will live on in my memories. Godspeed Dave.
