

Deborah Ann Couture

October 17, 2024

Deborah Ann (Keller) Couture was born April 29, 1952 in Washington, D.C. before she and her parents, Dorothy and Jack, and brother Patrick, moved to Bristow, Virginia. She passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on October 17, 2024.

She was raised in Bristow and graduated from Brentsville District High School in 1970. She graduated from George Mason University and worked at a Sears store where she met and fell in love with Richard Albert Couture.

He proposed at Seashore State Park in Virginia Beach which was the future location of many family and friend trips. They married September 10, 1977 at St Michael's Church in Annandale, VA, had 4 children together and settled in Dale City, VA in 1988. She worked as a social worker then as a preschool teacher for many years at Epiphany Lutheran Preschool in Dale City, VA. She volunteered throughout her life through La Leche League, Girl Scouts, as a youth soccer coach, in her children's and grandchildren's classrooms, and was a religious education teacher. She was very active at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Manassas, Virginia, including leading the Seniors group.

Debbie had a talent for being able to talk to anyone about anything. She loved taking care of people, visiting the beach, wineries, travel, sports, and celebrating holidays. She always celebrated life. She gave her time and energy cooking meals for the homeless shelter for the past 20 years and helped serve at funerals. She was the longest- serving board member for the Platelet Disorder Support Association. She was always willing to give her time and support to a worthy cause.

She will be greatly missed by her family and the many friends she made throughout her life. She is survived by her husband, Richard; four children- Jessica, Christopher, Sarah, and Carrie (her husband, Andres); three grandchildren- Callie, Anthony, and Natalie; and her brother Patrick. She was preceded in death by her parents and Dominic, her grandson.

Please join us in celebrating Debbie's wonderful life. The wake will be held Monday, October 28 from 7pm - 9pm at Miller Funeral Home (3200 Golansky Blvd Woodbridge, VA). The Funeral Mass with burial and reception to follow will be held at Sacred Heart Catholic Church on Tuesday October 29 at 1pm (12975 Purcell Rd Manassas, VA).

“ It is so difficult to put into words all that our family is feeling right now. I met Dick and Debbie 45 years ago. Dick and Jim worked together and they became friends right away. Debbie and I met when our oldest was a baby. Jess hadn't been born yet. Jim and I knew right away how fortunate we were to have the Coutures as our friends. We have never felt this closeness to another family and never will. Debbie and I went to La Leche League meetings and jazzercise classes together, both in Virginia and New York. Our fondest memories are our family vacations together. My children still talk about those times. Debbie was the kindest, loving and loyal friend anyone could have. I don't know if any of us can fully understand why Debbie was taken from her family and friends too soon. Debbie will always be loved and never forgotten!

“ So sorry to hear of Debbie's passing. Debbie's and I were classmates from 1966 - 1970, at BDHS were majorettes together (some fun times). And have cross each other past over the years. It was so good to see Debbie's at our high school reunion I send hugs and prayers to her family.

“ 47 years ago, we said 'I do'. And life began, experiences & love I could never have imagined. We lived, loved and laughed pretty much each and every day. Faith, family & friends carried us in good times and bad, in sickness and in health. so much love!

Debbie and I met at age 20 and remained steadfast friends for 52 years. Her loyalty, compassion and commitment to her family and any cause she took up were truly an inspiration. I will miss my darling friend and will remember her always. My love and prayers to Richard, the children and grandchildren and brother Pat and the many friends of Debbie who will grieve this loss. I just know she's happy in Heaven with Jesus and the loved ones who have gone ahead of her.
