“Eva, Debbie will truly be missed. She was one of a kind. A truly kind soul. She was never afraid to speak her mind about anything. Her sense of humor was undeniable and her love of law and politics was so apparent. I won't ever forget the stories about the race track, the rodeo, her time doing 18th century reenacting, time in college, her travel, her extended family, and her friends. The joy it brought when planning for Christmas for you and Dale. The love she had for her dogs and so much more.

The outings the three of us shared to so many places will forever be in my heart and let's not forget singing Broadway tunes along the way. And the amount of time we all spent together at the house -- especially Halloween night or the evenings where we just laughed and laughed as we played games or when discussing what seemed like every article in the news. And I will never forget that outing tubing!

Debbie and you hold a special place in my heart.

John 11:25-26

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

“Eva, On behalf of Paul, Christine, Jackson, Gavin, and Emma, please accept our deepest condolences for the loss of Debbie. She was not only your daughter but your terrific sidekick as well. It was always good to hear of the travels you would both enjoy, a shared love for auto racing, and cheering for the bulls on the PBR rodeo circuit. I enjoyed listening to her stories about being an attorney (do not fear, attorney/client privilege was always intact!), and she was never one to shy away from giving anyone a fluffed up answer. Debbie would always tell it like it is! I am thankful for time spent with her while working up at the race track, and visits to Virginia while training or looking at jobs in the DC area. She was always very helpful with her insight of the area. Please know that our extended family was always very proud of her graduating law school, and I can only imagine the pride you and Uncle Bobby had of her success. She will be truly missed, and know that she is at peace. God bless and we will see you soon. -Paul Hogan & Family
