“ Denard, we only began hanging out and getting to know each other the last couple of years but your kindness, love, and compassion shined through from day 1 to me. I'll always appreciate the encouragement you'd give me on the lanes. Your energy always intensified the atmosphere which made for there to never be a dull moment. From playing basketball in the rain and getting together with Zay just to have a basketball session in the middle of summer, some of my fondest memories of a time spent getting to know new people in a place where I didn't grow up nor have many friends lie with you my brother. We love you and will carry you on in our hearts forever!

“ Much love and prayers from my heart goes out to the Bankston Family. Denard and I will always share the memories on the bowling lanes. League or tournaments, Denard and I would be friendly and competitive at the same time. I'm going to miss Denard dearly. His quote to me during pot bowling, "I'm going to get in that PBA butt" will always stick with me forever. When he said that to everyone in the bowling alley at AMF Dale City, he got whooped 6 games straight that night after league bowling. He will never forget that moment. Denard even asked me, $20/game, I said that works. We will always be brother's no matter what. Love you family.
