Edward Norris Thompson, affectionately known as "Norris, DC, and T," passed away peacefully, leaving a legacy of love and cherished memories. Born on February 12, 1954 in Alexandria, VA, he was the beloved son of the late Harold Harper and Jeanette Thompson.

Norris was a dedicated veteran of the United States Marine Corps, serving his country with honor and bravery. For more than three decades, he was married to his beloved wife, Coretha Brown. During his life, Norris enjoyed his role as a driver for the Motor Transport Division at the Department of Defense, from February 21, 2006, until January 31, 2015.

Beyond his professional endeavors, Norris's heart was filled with passions. He had a natural flair for culinary delights, sowing seeds of happiness through his cooking and nurturing his garden with care. Music was a symphony that echoed through his life, as he reveled in the diverse melodies that touched his soul. He enjoyed fishing and sharing moments over a good drink with loved ones brought him true contentment, cherishing each interaction with family and friends.

Above all, Norris' devotion to his family was unwavering. He relished the presence of his sisters, gathering them together in the warmth of his home, creating lasting bonds and beautiful memories.

Left to cherish his memory are his beloved wife, Coretha; his three devoted sons, and the joy of his life, four granddaughters and one grandson, alongside four great grandsons. His love extended to his daughter-in-law, three sisters, three brothers-in-law, and host of adoring nephews, nieces, cousins, and other cherished loved ones. As we bid farewell to Norris, we celebrate the remarkable man he was- a Marine, a husband, a father, and a friend. His legacy of love, laughter, and togetherness will forever hold a cherished place in our hearts.

“ Edward was the best neighbor ever. We loved listening to his stories of his grandkids and his garden. We enjoyed the vegetables that he would share from his garden. He was always keeping a watch on our house when we were gone and picking up packages if we needed him to. He was funny and kind and we will miss chatting with him when he would go for walks with his dog. He was a good man.
