Elfriede J. Wenninger

Born in Hanau, Germany in 1925 to Karl and Christine Feuerstein. Upon graduating high school, she worked as a secretary for three years. After WWII, Elfriede was employed as a saleslady in the snack bar of the Frankfurt Central Exchange. There, she met her future husband, Otto C. Wenninger, who spent much of his free time at the snack bar eating ice cream and courting her. They married in 1951 in Schloss Philippsruhe, immigrated to the United States in 1952, and became a naturalized citizen in 1958. Elfriede gave birth to three children, Christine, William and Lilli-Ann, while living in Miami, Florida for over 40 years. During that time, Elfriede worked as a cashier in a supermarket and cafeteria. She and her husband were active members of the German American Social Club and dedicated much of their free time volunteering in support of the many festivities the club orchestrated. Polka dancing was a common enjoyment. In 1992, after retirement, they moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado because of their love for the mountains. She resided there for 20 years, enjoying occasional travel, playing cards, board games and crocheting. Becoming widowed in 2007, she moved to Woodbridge, Virginia in 2013 where she resided for over 10 years.

Elfriede is survived by her daughter Christine and her son William, as well as many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that any donations be sent to Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 15695 Blackburn Road, Woodbridge, VA 22191.
