Ethel May (McCain) Fink, 79, of Woodbridge, VA formerly of East Liverpool, OH, passed away on June 5, 2019, following a brief illness. Additionally, when Ethel moved to Pittsburgh, PA, she was a member of the Pittsburgh Mendelssohn Choir where she performed in the lead role of Handel's Messiah. While living in East Liverpool, she was employed at the L & B Donut Shop and American Paper Products. Ethel, Morgan, and Eric moved to Bayside Community in Woodbridge, VA in 1972.

Ethel was a devoted wife, mother, and friend. She had a special bond with her two neighbors, Lydia Ferran and Marge Bowler, with whom she shared genuine caring and devoted love. Ethel loved all animals and enjoyed spending time in the outdoors.

Ethel was an active volunteer for the Woodbridge Little League and co-ran the concession stand at Long Field for many years. She was also deeply involved in the planning and construction of the new little league facility at Veterans Park. Ethel worked at Elliot's Florist for 28 years as a Sales Associate/Bookkeeper. “ Aunt Ethel was always this quirky, unique, interesting figure in my life. We didn't get to spend too much time together due to distance, but I have so many fun memories of the times we did have. Jet-skiing in the bay near her home, going to see the Prince William Pirates (Pittsburgh Pirates minor league club back in the 1980s/1990s) as a child and being "magically" selected by the scoreboard manager (Aunt Ethel) out of a crowd of thousands to get to run the bases, playing my cousin's drums in their garage, and listening to her and my dad dicker back and forth about life, politics and other topics.

She was my mother's elder sister and was a hero to my mom. They would talk all of the time and solve all of their life's problems (mostly about their husbands...ha ha).

I love you, Aunt Ethel. God bless Uncle Morgan and Eric!

“ In loving memory of our dear friend, Ethel. She is deeply loved and missed by all her extended "family" at Elliott's florist. We will miss her presence and her whistling to her favorite songs as she went about her duties at the flower shop. She will always hold a special place in our hearts. ❤️ Rest In Peace.
