

Giddian Patrick Mahone

January 2, 2026

We are deeply saddened to announce the passing of Giddian Patrick Mahone on January 2, 2026, at his home in Woodbridge, Virginia. Born July 15, 1981 at Würzburg Army hospital, Germany. Giddian grew up in the Woodbridge area, graduating from Gar-Field High School in 2000. That same year his daughter, Amiya, the light of his life, was born. He remained in the area, eventually becoming a Master Plumber, who excelled at his craft, enabling him to purchase his own home in 2019. In 2024 he had the joy of becoming Papa G to his grandson, Evan, whom he adored.

Giddian had a passion for having a good time, working out and staying fit, appreciating and collecting works of art, and playing with his grandson. He had a vibrant personality and could always bring a smile to those around him.

He leaves behind his beloved daughter, Amiya Rhea Mahone Williams (Eric Johnson II) and their son, Evan; his father, Patrick Bryan Mahone (Cynthia Ward) of Honolulu; his mother, Toni Ann Wheeler (Walter Wheeler) of Tampa; and his four older siblings: Melony Bonetti Riopelle, Jeremiah Bonetti, Rose Bonetti, and Farren Mahone. He will be missed by many.

Although we mourn his loss, we take comfort in knowing that Giddian is now at peace. His laughter and kindness will be dearly missed by all who knew him. We will be hosting a celebration of his life on May 2nd, 2026 in Woodbridge please reach out to his family for more information. Please join us to mourn his passing but celebrate the time we had with him, a beloved father, grandfather, brother, and friend.

“ I am stepmother to Chris Haas, married to Ernie Haas. Giddian was a large part of our Dale City life back in the day and then after when we moved south. This news is shocking and we are sorrowful. Giddian was a good soul, kind, smart and a person we adored. Our deepest sympathy.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Giddian was one of my two favorite plumbers and one of the only two that I let work on my house. I always knew I could trust him. When he walked in, he would stoop down to greet my dog and then give me hug and then ask what's up. He always was so nice and lit up the house when he was here.
