important call, a sort of an offer you can't refuse, for an appointment from which she will not be returning. This assignment comes with a huge sign-on bonus, a reunion with her husband Stephen Dachi, family and friends she has not seen in a long time. Job security is exactly 110 percent. She has been training for this position a longtime. Her new mission takes her to a wonderful place where she will be playing bridge, socializing, dancing, gardening and reading mystery novels to her heart's content. Music, laughter, manicures, and love are guaranteed. Food is delicious and you never gain an ounce. She left detailed instructions for her son, daughter, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren to celebrate her mission here, which has now been completed. Low adherence to this instruction will not be tolerated."

Service will be held at the Miller Funeral Home, 3200 Golansky Blvd., Woodbridge, VA 22192 at Saturday, April 27. “ My Dearest Lee,

*Oh, how I'll think of you in days gone by,
Our laughter, tears of sorrow, joy,
Our years of childhood ....giggles...carefree play,
I wish them back for you and me --- just one more day.*

*Oh, how I'll think of you in days gone by,
Our dresses, proms, first kisses, lying by the shore,
Our years of studies to the background music's modern sway,
I wish them back for you and me ---just one more day.*

*Oh, how I'll think of you in days gone by,
Colleges chosen - caused us to grow apart,
And yet, we shared adventures over phones.
We stayed connected, not at a loss of what to say,
I wish them back for you and me ---just one more day.*

*Oh, how I'll think of you in days gone by,
When we emerged young women, wives, and mothers,
And coped with schedules, colic, diapers, teething and much more,
In travel, work and motherhood we chose our way.
I wish them back for you and me ---just one more day.*

*Oh, how I'll think of you in days gone by,
When suddenly the golden years just came upon us,
Reflections in the mirrors showed no signs of aging,
We traveled, talked, and marveled at the sunset's golden ray,
We swore we'd stay connected ---come what may.*

*But now, dear friend, we need to change that promise,
And letting go will be so hard, it breaks my heart,*

*It's now God's plan that each of us will follow,
And in His Heaven, God will set us free.
We'll be together.... once again...just you and me.*

Loving you always,
