

Hailey Katlyn Cavin

June 11, 1995 - August 17, 2023

Hailey Katlyn Cavin, 28, passed away on Thursday Aug 17, 2023, unexpectedly in her home located in Falls Church, Virginia. She is survived by her mother and stepfather, Wendy and Tony DiCola; and father and stepmother, Jason and Jennifer Cavin. She had very close bonds with her siblings, Nico and Gianna DiCola and her stepbrother, Elijah Layton, who adored their big sister. She is also survived by her many close relatives who include - Tom and Jackie Musselman, her maternal grandparents; Jim and Judy Cavin, her paternal grandparents; and Nancy and Jay McFarland, her grandparents in kind. In addition, her aunts and uncles - Debby and Bruce Smith, Sheri and Scott Sheaffer, Mark and Karen Musselman, Heather Tullis and Jerah DiCola...as well as many cousins - Shane, Wyatt and Jesse Smith, Nykky Stapleton, Scottie and Casey Sheaffer, Paige Musselman, Regan and Patrick Tullis, and Jerah DiCola, Jr., will all miss her dearly.

Her infectious smile, laughter, and light beamed on everyone she knew. She had a strong dedication to animal rescue and animal rehabilitation, and worked as a manager at Last Chance Animal Rescue in Waldorf, Maryland, for many years. Her giving nature, vibrant spirit and kind heart will be eternally missed by everyone she knew.

Her family will be welcoming all who share in their love of Hailey this Sunday, August 27th, 2-5pm, for a Celebration of Life Open House. In keeping form to Hailey's free spirit, we are keeping this a casual event. We encourage everyone to wear Dallas Cowboys colors in honor of Hailey (blue, white, silver).
