

Harry Miller

September 20, 1932 - August 9, 2024

Harry Miller, 91, of Woodbridge, VA passed away peacefully at home on August 9, 2024.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1950 to 1953. He was an FAA Supervisor until his retirement in 1989. Then after having a year off, he went back to work at Lowes until he finally retired at the age of 81. Harry was a hardworking family man. His love and devotion for family, life, friends, a dry sense of humor, and a cup of coffee encompassed Harry's personality. Harry was a member of the Cokesbury United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, the late Lawrence Miller and the late Sophie Miller and his brothers Johnny, Danny, Tommy, David and his sister Shirley Ford.

Harry is survived by his wife Nancy, his two sisters JoAnna Frederick and Bertha Jackman, his two sons Alan Miller, of Woodbridge, Jeff Miller (Lillian) of Fredericksburg and his daughter Lori Gentry (George) of Richmond; three grandchildren, Shaun Miller, Ashley Greer, Megan Miller; four great grandchildren, Dakota Miller, Romani, Sofia, Olivia.

“ *sorry to hear of Harry passing. We would always see Harry at Lowe's. He said my family wants me to retire but what would i do sit on the couch and watch tv. I attended Cokesbury also. Carl and I moved back to W.VA.
It was great to have known the Miller family. My Deepest Sympathy.
