August 30, 2021

Jack Conrad Inge of Woodbridge, VA went to be with the Lord & Savior on August 30, 2021 at Inova Fairfax Hospital surrounded by his family.

Jack was born on March 19, 1941 and grew up in Chase City, Virginia. He was the son of James Conrad & Elizabeth. Jack graduated from Bluestone High School, class of 1958. Following graduation, he joined the Army National Guard. He worked for At&t and founded Quality Tire in 1986. Jack loved to play golf. He was an avid golfer for over 60 years. After retirement, his grandchildren used to say every morning he played golf he was leaving for work at his full-time job.

Jack is survived by his wife, Ann H. Inge, his eldest son Jeffrey (Julie), middle son Brian (Kimberly), youngest son Kevin (Jennifer), his grandchildren Cori (Jacob), Amber (Thomas), Gavin, Brandon, Casey, Madison, his great-grandchild Noelle, his sister Doris Nixon from Greensboro, NC, his brother Robert Inge (Virginia) from Appomattox, VA, his niece Cheri Ellixson from Greensboro, NC, and Josh Little (adopted son).

He is preceded in death by his father James Conrad Inge and his mother Elizabeth Inge (Champion).

Proverbs 3:5-6 KJV

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; And lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, And he shall direct thy paths.

In lieu of flowers, our dad was a firm believer in sharing the Gospel to as many people as he could. He also believed strongly in missionaries around the world doing the same thing. There are a few missionaries that he greatly adored and provided support, but one in particular was his favorite. Dr. Dodson, for many years, has been spreading the Gospel in Tanzania as well as surrounding cities in Africa. If you would like to make a donation in lieu of flowers, you can send a check to:

“ *Jack Inge was a wonderful Christian man who showed his faith through his actions and life. One time I had a flat tire while traveling with my 4 small children; Jack did not hesitate to send a truck with tires to help even though I couldn't afford to pay him.
He will be greatly missed!!*
