“ The memory that I will always cherish will be my wedding day! You stood as one of my Matron of Honors. You did my make up and had to redo it because of the tears of anxiety that wouldn't stop falling. Through the years we experienced our shares of ups and downs but I am glad that we were able to put our differences aside and within the last month before your passing we were able to catch up and had the best conversations ever. We worked together at the DC Arab American Chamber, we worked together in ministry at DCC #1. You were there when I had my first child. I can go on and on! Jacqui you ran the race and now you get to hear the Lord say well done my good and faith servant!
