“ Jim was so much more than a nephew to me. He was always that person that I could count on to lend an ear when I needed one and to give advice whether it was what I wanted to her or not. For most of my years in the DC area we were a team, always there for each other. More like a little brother. In fact when my son was born he told me he did not want to be Tim’s cousin, he was going to be his Uncle. Jim never had a problem telling you like it was. That was one of the things I loved the most! He could always make me laugh even when there was nothing to smile about. There are so many years of wonderful memories that I shall treasure until we meet again. Thank you for your love and for always being there for me “Little Jim” you are forever in my heart.

Working with Jim , And my other friends at Chesapeake Bay was a very happy part of my life. We were like a family, having good times arguing with one another but we all truly cared about one another. Then, our dishwasher never worked properly, so we were Soaked our silverware and hot water and coffee pots one time I was next to Jim Rolling silverware, I took a knife out of the hot water and put it on his forehead and told him he was healed, a bunch of us around the table laughed a lot. He got pissed, but he was trying to hold back his laughing. I am thankful that he was a friend, and I am thankful for the friendship I had with so many people at Chesapeake
