He is survived by wife Barbara, and sons Christopher and Mark, who Jim all loved so dearly. Jim was a wonderful brother, in-law, cousin, and friend to so many. Mass of Christian burial will be Friday, May 9 11:45 AM at Saint Anne Seton Parish, Lakeridge, Virginia, followed by burial at Quantico Military cemetery. “ Where do I begin? I met Jim in 1993 where every month he delighted in busting my eh, chops. But that was the beginning of a relationship that evolved into respect, then partnership, then colleague, then friend, which we have been for almost 30 years. In our time together we have done much, professionally. More importantly, we have shared a friendship that overcame the greatest of all hurdles. Eagles vs. Redskins. Rest in peace my brother.
