

James "Jim" Hereford

April 18, 2026

James "Jim" Hereford, 68, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, passed away on April 18, 2026, after a long and courageous battle with heart disease.

Jim was born on April 4, 1958, in Manassas, Virginia. He built a life defined by dedication, hard work, and deep love for his family and the simple joys that brought him happiness.

He enjoyed a long and successful career with the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT), where he was respected for his commitment and work ethic.

Jim found his greatest joy in spending time outdoors, especially fishing and hunting, and was a devoted fan of the Washington Redskins. He was also a big fan of music, especially the songs of George Strait and Boston, which he enjoyed often. He cherished time spent with his wife, whether relaxing at the beach or going out to dinner together.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 20 years, Debi Hereford; his sister, Cathy Hereford; and a large extended family of aunts, uncles, in-laws, and many others who will miss him dearly.

A service to celebrate Jim's life will be held on May 9, 2026, at Miller Funeral Home in Woodbridge, Virginia. A gathering will begin at 10:00 a.m., followed by the service at 11:00 a.m. Family and friends are invited to join for a luncheon immediately following the service at 5472 Quaint Drive, Woodbridge, Virginia.

Jim will be remembered for his strength, loyalty, and the love he shared with those around him. His presence will be deeply missed and forever cherished.
