

Janet Clare Johannes Messier

May 9, 2024

Janet Clare Johannes Messier passed away in Haymarket, Virginia, Thursday, May 9, 2024. Janet was born on July 9, 1934, in Ashton, Iowa, to Mathias and Erleen. She was married to the love of her life, Roland Messier, for 69 years. In addition to Roland, Janet leaves behind 5 of her 6 children: Michael Messier and his wife, Denise, Carla Scowcroft and her husband, John, Aaron Messier and his wife, Kathleen, Lynette Messier, and Gary Messier and his wife, Lynn. Janet is preceded in death by her daughter, Janene Dulski. Janet was immensely loved by her 21 grandchildren and 42 great-grandchildren, but she would say she "loved them more."

Janet is remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Janet grew up on a farm in Ashton, Iowa, where she was the eldest daughter of eleven children. After high school, she left the farm, eventually finding work in the Washington, D.C. area. There, she met her handsome soldier, Roland, on a blind date. They were soon married on July 16, 1955. Janet was a faithful Army wife and traveled with her husband during his deployments to Alaska, Africa, and Japan before returning to the States. She lovingly and sacrificially cared for her children while Roland finished out his career within the government. Janet's main hobbies were cooking and watching movies in the theater. She loved watching classic, old-time movies. Janet was a great cook and every Thanksgiving and Christmas would put on a tremendous feast. Her children will miss those holidays when the whole family would show up for the wonderful stuffed turkey dinner. Janet was a kind mother and she will be missed dearly.

“ sounds of leaves
gently leaving
their fragile mooring
the slope of descent
unfettered and free
the leaves have learned the lesson well...
time to let go
settle easily
into a new place
to be free...

To Janet, a person so precious will always be in our hearts.
