“ We just learned of Jerry' passing and wish to share out condolences to Cheri and all the Saggars family. We enjoyed many years at the Montclair swim club, the QYC, and boating on the Potomac. We had such fun and the memories we have are special. Jerry was always so willing to share his wise counsel and advice. Our sincere best wishes and blessings to all the family. Don and Sharon Radeke

“ Jerry was one of those special people that whenever you think of him you just smile!
We first met in New York many years ago and we worked together closely. He was a patient teacher to me - I was really just a kid then and he was a great guide. Whenever anything in our work went slightly awry, I can still hear him saying: "Hold on there, dad!". And I truly believe he knew every word and the melody of every country-western-hillbilly song ever written. Remarkable.
Jerry was a good man who is remembered with great fondness and respect.
My condolences go out to the entire family on his passing.

“ Jerry helped my Boy Scout troop out a number of times instructing and co-sponsoring Shooting Sports Campouts. I will always remember his willingness to help and excitement as boys were introduced to firearms for the first time or expanded their skill set.

“ To the family of Cheri and Jerry and children and grandchildren. I met Cheri and Jerry when I moved to Montclair. They welcomed me in their home. I enjoyed many family gatherings with the Saggars. Even though I moved away I still managed to get there to visit at their farm Jerry even fixed my garage door when it was broken. Great friends. I loved hearing his FBI stories. I will miss him.

“ My condolences to the family. While I only met Jerry briefly in their home while visiting Cheri, I always remember how proud he was of the many mementos he had collected over his many years, and careers, sharing what they were, when and where he got them, and what they meant to him. He had such an interesting, fulfilling life. I was happy and interested to hear about them all. 🙏
