“ I live on the corner at 14501 Lamar Road and Meridian. Jo-Ann always parked in front of my house and that was her intersection just before Potomac View Elementary School. Every one I know that knew Jo-Ann loved and respected her,,she was always friendly & easy to talk to. She and I had so many great conversations. If I was having a bad day she could always somehow make me feel better. For 15 years I have turned my front yard into a Memorial to the Terrorist Attacks on 9/11 so that people don't forget those atrocities and Jo-Ann is always the first in the morning to get out of her Jeep and salute the flags of New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania! Jo-Ann, you are a awesome lady and a great Crossing guard and friend. Jill and I love you and you will be so sorely missed!!

EM

“ God looked around his garden and found an empty place
He then looked down upon the Earth and saw your tired face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
With the help of his angels they flew you to your heavenly place

Gods garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best
He knew you were suffering, he knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on Earth again

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb
He closed your weary eyelids and whispered “Peace be Thine”
It broke my heart to lose you but you didn’t go alone
For part of me went with you the day God called you home.

I will hold on to all the laughs we had together and never forget my sister.

Until we meet again Jo
Love forever Ellie
