“ John was a lunch buddy and a friend that had a heart of gold, a smile on his face and a fantastic personality. He will be missed here on Earth and welcomed in heaven

“ John had a sense of humor even during several years of difficulties with his health. His faith was a journey full of hope. We enjoyed many times to include birthday, baptism and holiday celebrations. He was part of our family. John's laugh is already being missed. Hats off to his wife Phyllis for all she has done caring for her husband every step of the way. As we travel and travail through life to eternity, we are buoyed by the sure promise of Jesus, "Because I live, you also will live" (John 14:19). John's hope saw fulfillment -- things did get better. "1Peter 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy He has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

Will remember your fun nature and keep your memory alive especially your love of your "baby" Phyllis.

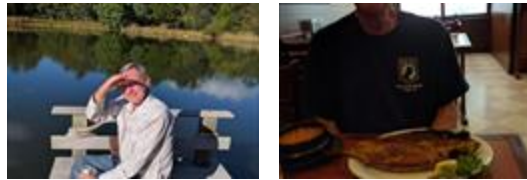

With love and fond memories,

“ Definitely will miss John's wit and humour the most. He always looked at the bright side of everything. Often making us laugh with his comments. We shared a lot of time together, meals, plays, movies, Charles Town race track and casino, and numerous others and John always had a good things to say.....
