

John Tarsia

June 18, 2019

John Tarsia, 79, of Woodbridge, Virginia died on June 18, 2019 at Fairfax Hospital. He retired from C.E.I. in 2004. He loved this job and traveled around the country and even to Hong Kong.

He was a member of Our Lady of Angels Church. He was an usher, and in the past ran the family festival, and taught religious education.

He enjoyed all sports, loved the beach, shopping, Sudoku, and his computer.

He is survived by his wife Sue; his daughters Bonnie, Gloria, and Becky; his son John Jr.; and his grandchildren: Christopher, Madison, Benjamin, Cason, and Victoria.

The family will receive visitors from 4:00-7:00 PM on June 26, 2019 at Miller Funeral Home, 3200 Golansky Blvd Woodbridge, VA 22192. Funeral Mass will be at Our Lady of Angels Church on June 27, 2019 at 10:30 AM, 13752 Mary's Way Woodbridge, VA 22191. Burial at Fairfax Memorial Park immediately following the Mass, 4401 Burke Station Road Fairfax, VA 22032.

“ Jack was always joking around with friends and acquaintances. His humor was always refreshing. A truly a good man, taken too soon, who wanted to contribute to his community and church. He will be missed by many. Our prayers are with Sue and the family. Special prayers will be offered for Jack.

I regret that I have been out of touch with John for many years. John and I were roommates in college in Chicago in 1957-59. He was a man with strong Catholic values. He had a part time job repairing cars which he loved. I expected him to change careers, opening his own auto repair shop. I would like to talk to his family. I live in Annapolis, and my phone is 410-268-4730.
