Joselynn Abelinda Gilliam

December 27, 2004 – September 21, 2025

With hearts overflowing with love and sorrow, we announce the passing of Joselynn Abelinda Gilliam, who left this world far too soon on September 21, 2025, at the tender age of 20.

Joselynn was a radiant soul whose presence lit up every room she entered. Intelligent, artistic, and compassionate, she carried warmth that made others feel safe, cherished, and understood. Her laughter was bright and contagious, her smile could lift the heaviest hearts, and her spirit was as beautiful as her outward grace. She was known for standing up for others, offering forgiveness freely, and extending love without hesitation.

A dreamer with incredible talent, Joselynn pursued her artistic passions with determination and creativity. After graduating high school, she began following her dream of becoming a tattoo artist, using her gift to tell stories through art and to help others carry beauty and meaning with them forever.

Above all, Joselynn's greatest joy was being a mother. She poured her heart into her beloved children who were the center of her world. Though her time with them was far too short, the love she gave will forever live on within their hearts and souls.

To know Joselynn was to know unconditional love, kindness, and a soul that forgave easily and cared deeply. She leaves behind a legacy of laughter, creativity, and compassion that will never be forgotten.

Funeral arrangements will be shared with family and friends. In honoring Joselynn's life, may we each carry forward her light, her love, her strength, and her unshakable kindness in the way we live and love one another. She is deeply mourned by her family.

The family will receive visitors Saturday, October 4, 2025 from 10 to 11 am with a service to start at 11 am at Dale City Church of Christ.
