

Juanita Joy Geren

November 20, 2022

Juanita Joy Geren, 93, passed away on November 20, 2022, at White Springs Assisted Living in Warrenton, Virginia. Juanita was born on August 3, 1929, in Sullivan, Missouri. After graduating from Sullivan High School, she attended business school and became a secretary in St. Louis, Missouri.

On November 11, 1950, Juanita married Ralph J. Geren. Together they had one daughter, Yvonne, and lived throughout the United States and Japan due to military and government assignments. Ultimately, they settled in Virginia.

Juanita resided in the Northern Virginia area for the last 47 years and last attended Heritage Baptist Church in Woodbridge, Virginia. Juanita was active in many church functions. She was a social and caring person with several close friends who she cherished and who cherished her. Many of these friends visited, cared, and fellowshiped with her often as her health declined.

Juanita was preceded by her parents, Ernst and Florence Gehlauf; her sister, Virginia Dodge; her brother Lowell Gehlauf; her husband, Ralph Geren; her daughter; Yvonne Leicht; and her grandson, Brent Leicht. She is survived by her grandson, Jason Fulton; granddaughter-in-law, Nicole Kephart-Fulton; great granddaughters, Brookelyn and Kensley Fulton; granddaughter, Kristiana Leicht; and great grandsons, Taylor, Jackson and Joseph Walker III.

A memorial service for Juanita will take place at Miller Funeral Home and Crematory in Woodbridge, Virginia on December 16, 2022. A gathering of friends and family will take place at 11:00 am, the service will be at 12:00 pm and the interment will take place at Quantico National Cemetery at 1:30 pm.
