

Julian G. Schimmenti

December 25, 2019

Julian G. Schimmenti, 92, passed away peacefully on Christmas Day, December 25, 2019. He was raised in Garfield, NJ, the second of four sons of Italian immigrants, lived most of his life in River Vale, NJ, and most recently in Lake Ridge, VA.

He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 66 years, Dolores; brothers Joseph and Michael, and his parents, Grace and Michael.

He was a devout Catholic and a dedicated father to his five children. Jules was a veteran of the US Navy, a career pharmacist, avid golfer, and a vocal Yankees and Giants fan. He loved making his children laugh with his quick wit and humorous outlook on life. He enjoyed classical music and opera, tinkering in his basement workshop, and caring for his yard and garden. He met Dolores in pharmacy college at Rutgers University and forged a beautiful life with her. They shared a love of travel, art, colonial history, jigsaw puzzles, Broadway musicals, and the Sunday New York Times crossword.

He will be greatly missed by his surviving family members: his brother Arthur (Dolores); sister-in-law Carmelita Schimmenti, children Neil (Kari), Julie Thane (Brian), Karen Kiesner (Steve), Sue, and Mike (Jen); and seven grandchildren Neil, Drew, Patrick (Ashley) Kiesner, Tom Kiesner, Katie Kiesner, Addie Thane, Greta Thane.

A memorial Mass will be held at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, 12805 Valleywood Drive, Lake Ridge, VA, at 11:00 a.m. on January 31, 2020, followed by a private interment at Quantico National Cemetery.

In honor of his wife, Dolores, the family requests contributions to:
