

Kelly Jane Redmon Thomas

August 17, 2024

Kelly Jane Redmon Thomas, 41, of Woodbridge, Virginia, now rests in eternal peace after a courageous battle against Metastatic Triple Negative Breast Cancer. Kelly was born in Leesburg, Virginia, on November 11, 1982. She was raised in Sterling. She passed with family by her side on August 17, 2024.

Throughout her adult life, Kelly loved spending time with her kids, her dog, and her many close friends and relatives at beaches up and down the Eastern seaboard--right up until the last days of her short life. Kelly also enjoyed vacations with her loved ones in the mountains.

Kelly's career with Freddie Mac began in her late teens. The company honored her with the 2022 CEO Award for her "significant contributions and motivating presence," adding that "her 20+ years with the company were deeply impactful and her legacy will continue to inspire us."

Kelly's colleagues, friends, and family were inspired by Kelly's zest for life both at work and play. She had a vibrant smile, beautiful blue eyes and sparkling personality that lit up a room when she entered.

Kelly is survived by her husband Scott Thomas; sons Tyler (TJ), Daelyn, and Lucas; stepdaughter Amelia; dog Scarlett Jane; parents John F. Taylor II and Doreen (Dee-Dee) Jane Taylor; brother Cavan Redmon; grandparents Russell and Mary Jane Stutz; Aunt Jane Marie Cochrane and Aunt Eleanor (Dana) Keating; and many extended family and close friends.

A memorial service for Kelly will be held on Sunday, September 8, 2024, at 11 a.m. at Miller Funeral Home, 3200 Golansky Blvd, Woodbridge, Virginia 22192, followed by a Celebration of Life where family and friends are invited to gather and share fond memories and stories during a catered luncheon.

Kelly will be deeply missed by so many friends and family. She will be remembered for her light, her fight and for her passion for life.
