“ Kevin was someone who I met and worked with many, many years ago when DHS was first stood up. A very kind, hardworking man that always found a way to get the job and mission accomplished. I am grateful that we were able to reconnect when he came back to support us. I am deeply saddened by his passing; he was a good man whom I called friend. Rest in Peace Brother.

“ Kevin was a staple of support and leadership for our team and was a major part of leading the stand up of cloud operations and managing the daily tasks of our team. He was a true leader and ready to handle any issue we had in cloud operations. We could not have been successful without his tireless efforts, and with all of his team's support, he always ensured everything was taken care of in a timely manner and routinely exceeded my expectations. Kevin, you will be missed by so many, myself included. Rest my friend.
