

Lawrence Paul Lokovich

January 7, 1956 - January 19, 2025

Lawrence “Larry, Survivor” Paul Lokovich, 69, of Woodbridge, Virginia passed away January 19, 2025 at Sentara Northern Virginia Medical Center. He was the son of Paul X. Lokovich and Virginia L. Lokovich (Wheeler) and was born in Butler, PA, January 7, 1956.

After graduating from Butler High School in 1974, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy as a Cryptologic Maintenance Technician. Having served his country he loved so dearly for 20 years, he retired as a First Class Petty Officer in 1994. Moving on from the U.S. Navy he worked at Guest Services as a Computer Specialist for 25 years.

Lawrence was a kind soul who would go out of his way to help anybody in need. He immensely cared for his family, proving it over and over by his actions. He enjoyed providing for the local birds and wildlife. Every year Larry would make a point to go to Pennsylvania to go camping and hunting for deer. Quite often, Larry would remark how at peace he was while there. Also, he was a lifetime member of Moose International, The Elks Lodge, American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Larry was preceded in death by his father, Paul X. Lokovich and his brother Gary L. Lokovich.

He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Dorothy R. Lokovich (Ammerman); daughters Heather Lokovich of Fayetteville, NC; Leslie Jahns of Dallas, TX; Anna Brown of Louisville, KY; and sons Donald T. Lokovich of Louisville, KY; Adam L. Lokovich of King George, VA; 13 Grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He is also survived by his mother, Virginia Lokovich of Butler, PA and 2 sisters; Beth Muti (Lokovich) of Milwaukie, OR and Brenda Lokovich of Butler, PA.

He was an amazing man, who will be missed dearly. He will remain in our hearts forever.

Tribute Wall

DL

“ My love, until we meet again. I'll love you always. GRUBUNOTS! Your wife forevermore.

Dottie Lokovich - January 31, 2025 at 07:01 PM