He would never move from the house he lived in for over 40 years because of the memories it held of his family. The house became a winter wonderland with Christmas being celebrated all year round. The family plans on having a Celebration of Life in late November/early December with a Christmas theme. “ I just wanted to say how grateful I am for my family. Through this painful yet oddly peaceful process I have got to see how much Dad will truly lives on in all of us ❤️

In Sherry is I see Dad's infectious sense of humor and the ability to make everyone laugh even during the most difficult times.

In Debra I see my Dads quiet side. She is calm and doesn't say much but her presence make you feel so comforted.

In Stacy I see the rock that my Dad was. She will stop everything in a drop of a hat and be there to do the heavy lifting. No questions asked with no complaints.

In Deron I see my Dad's intelligence and rational mind. He is so smart and always knows just what to do.

In me I think I see my dads huge heart. To love everyone and want everybody to be included.

Even though his body is no longer here. Lester my old man lives on in all of us ❤️
