“ Lil's memory will always put a smile on my face. After knowing her for about 20 years, I can honestly say that I never saw Lil in a bad mood or ever being disagreeable with anyone. She had a ready smile and a heart full of love for each person she came in contact with. Lil, you will be very much missed. I pray that you are happy with God our Father in Heaven. May you rest in peace.

“ I will always remember my dear friend Lil. I remember her when I first became Catholic. She taught me many things about the faith. She was my best friend. We had lots of fun and went together to many places including Red Hat events, lunches, birthday parties, many, many Church functions, coffee get togethers, parties, Church gatherings, CWIA meetings, the Blue Army meetings, CWIA meetings and much more. I will always love her, pray for her, and NEVER forget her kindness and love of our dear Lord. I know now she is with her Lord, may she always be a peace.
Sincerely with love and prayers,
Lola Staples

Aunt Lil, You have been such an inspiration to me and JoAnn showing us how we are to live not by words but by your deeds. Although we are sad we are also comforted to know that God has called you home and you will have eternal life in the place prepared for you by our Lord and Savior. Love you!
