

Lillian Marie Taylor

April 4, 2026

Lillian Marie Taylor, 98, of Woodbridge, VA, passed away peacefully on April 4, 2026 at Brookdale Senior Living Facility of Lakeridge, Va.

Born in Falls Church, VA, Lillian was the daughter of the late Edward and Madeline Nash Jerman. In May of 1949, she married the love of her life, Charles Taylor Jr, a marriage that lasted over 47 years and produced two children, Ruth and Robert.

Lillian began and spent her entire professional career in the retail industry. Most of her career was with Woodward and Lothrop, working in the jewelry department at stores in Washington, D.C., Falls Church and the Pentagon. She truly loved interacting with people and served as an example of what customer service should be.

Lillian enjoyed reading, listening to country music, embroidering and crafts. Each year on every major holiday, she would put together floral arrangements for deceased relatives and place them on their gravesites. This required visiting two cemeteries and seven gravesites, which she did until she was 95 years old.

Lillian was preceded in death by her husband, Charles her parents Edward and Madeline Nash Jerman, and her daughter-in-law, Kisun Taylor. She is survived by her daughter, Ruth Timko and husband Michael; son, Robert; grandchildren, Stephen and Nancy Taylor and great grandchildren, Alden, Grayson and Lexie Taylor.

The family would like to thank the staff of Brookdale Senior Living Facility for their compassionate care and kindness to Lillian.

“ Good morning, Robert,

My niece, Megan, made me aware of Lillian's passing. I am grateful that my mother, Ginger Dungan (formerly Taylor), reconnected with the Taylor family not so many years ago, which gave me the opportunity to enjoy Lillian's company.

I recall her love of her little dog, I believe he was a Shih Tzu named Bailey, I readily recall her attending my mother's funeral with your son for which I was truly grateful. i am also grateful for Lillian's support of my family's charitable work on behalf of homeless animals. In my mind, Lillian was kind and generous woman.

I did not have an email address that will allow you to be notified, but please know that my wife, Cindy, and I have made a donation to the Alzheimer's Foundation.

*God bless you,
Jim and Cindy Taylor
South Carolina*
