“ Linda was a bright light in our lives and we will grieve her loss forever. She fought a courageous battle with this dreadful disease. We send our love and comfort to you, Kevin and to you children Colleen and Calvin, who she so dearly loved. She was an inspiration to us all as we mourn her loss. Never forget that "Pepper is black salt" according to Linda. She was so clever and talented. May she be at peace now.

I was so very sorry and saddened to hear that Linda passed away. I have fond memories in the Summer of 1976 when I was in Virginia for 1 month. We went swimming a lot and she laughed a lot. We corresponded later in life on FB. What a beautiful, courageous woman! Truly an inspiration who will live on i. All who loved her. My sympathy and prayers to her family.

“ Linda was a mentor, dear friend, and guide to me as a fellow art teacher in PWCS. Always positive, creative, and kind, Linda generously shared her wisdom and talent with be over the years. She was always someone I looked forward to chatting with at the Arts festival. She dearly loved her family, friends, community and was an inspiration to many. Linda made the world a better place, and I feel blessed to have seen her in action! She was always so proud of her husband and kids. Wishing love, peace, and precious memories for her beauty family!
