

Lloyd G. Edwards, Jr.

May 5, 2025

Lloyd G. Edwards, Jr., passed away on May 5, 2025, at the age of 42.

Lloyd lived a life marked by courage, compassion, and commitment to the well-being of others. He proudly served as a firefighter for Arlington County VA, dedicating himself to protecting his community with strength, honor, and quiet humility. His service wasn't just a job—it was a calling. He was known by his colleagues for his fierce loyalty, reliability, and calm presence in times of crisis.

Beyond his career, Lloyd had a deep passion for health and fitness. He spent countless hours training, studying, and encouraging others to push past their limits and live healthier, stronger lives. Whether through mentorship, training advice, or a simple encouraging word, Lloyd had a unique ability to inspire those around him to believe in their own strength. He was a true example of resilience and discipline.

Lloyd will be remembered for his unwavering dedication, his generous heart, and the positive impact he made both in and out of uniform. He leaves behind a legacy of service, strength, and love.

He is survived by his family, friends, and fellow firefighters who will carry forward his memory with pride and gratitude.
