

Loraine Phyllis Thompson

July 28, 1932 - May 28, 2024

On May 28, 2024, Loraine Phyllis (Boothe) Thompson passed away peacefully at home.

Born July 28, 1932, in Tralee, West Virginia, she was one of four children born to George William Boothe and Minnie Alice Akers.

Loraine married her husband of 74 years, Russell Everett Thompson in June of 1949. They relocated to Virginia in 1958, where they raised four sons. Loraine's home and family were her life. She enjoyed annual trips to the beach and Sunday dinners with her children and grandchildren. She was an amazing cook and often canned vegetables from their garden. She loved to read and made many quilts for her loved ones.

Loraine and Russell became members of Prince of Peace United Methodist Church in August of 1997. They were active members, helping weekly with the food pantry. Loraine was a member of Occoquan Chapter No. 59 Order of the Eastern Star for many years.

Loraine was preceded in death by her husband Russell, her sister Mary Sue, and her brothers William Humphrey and Everett Louis Boothe.

She is survived by her four sons, Jerry Thompson (Carol), Ronnie Thompson

(Karen), Donald Thompson (Kelly), and Kenny Thompson (Judy). Also surviving are 11 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Interment will be at Quantico National Cemetery at a later date. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Prince of Peace United Methodist Church, 6299 Token Forest Dr., Manassas, VA. 20112.

“ So many sweet memories of our families together at Granny’s house! Aunt Loraine was always calm and soft spoken! Bet she wasn’t always at home with my 4 boys cousins! She leaves behind so many that love her dearly. Her family was her light. Much love to all of my cousins!
