

Lynn Allen Monaco

December 25, 1946 - November 30, 2024

Lynn Allen Monaco was born on December 25, 1946 in Washington, DC. and passed away on November 30, 2024 in his home. He grew up in Falls Church, VA. and was a member of the D.C. National Guard. Lynn was a career auto mechanic and retired from Prince William County Fleet Management in 2020. He was known as the man who could fix or fabricate nearly anything when needed.

He and his wife Kathy had one daughter Lynn Anne Burton and one grandson Brandon Burton and a son in law, Alan Burton. He was one of the kindest people you would ever know, was a loving father and devoted grandfather. From a young age Lynn had a love for cars, boats, and most anything with a motor. He was also an avid boater and woodworker.

Life was never dull with Lynn. He always had project of some nature going. His friends always knew they could go to him for help. If he didn't know how to fix it, just give him a few days! He will be greatly missed by his family and friends
