“ My heart 💔 is VERY broken with the passing of Mrs. Limbach. She made me the most AMAZING German chocolate birthday cakes! Hits even harder now as it's my birthday week. What a kind and loving woman that did so much for Jim and I. Mrs. Limbach always got us to and from football practice when no one else could. Jim has ALWAYS been my brother from another mother and THAT mother is you! 😊

Mrs. Limbach, may you have eternal grace and peace. You are such a WONDERFUL person and even BETTER human! 🙏 “Luci and I met Jim and Margaret in 1976 when we moved to Washington. Jim started at Associated Press Radio a month before me and we became instant friends. Margaret was pregnant with Peter at the time and I remember the office had a pool going on when she would deliver. It was that kind of place.

Over the next 46 years, our families spent a lot of time together and we watched each other's children grow into adults. You get to know people when that happens.

Margaret was a special, gentle soul. She was Jim's rock and set a wonderful example for her sons and granddaughters. We were privileged to know her.
