

Marjorie Downey Jones

May 25, 2023

Marjorie Downey Jones died unexpectedly in her residence on May 25th, 2023 in Washington, DC at age 66.

Marjorie is survived by her father Jackie Downey and his wife Louise of Virginia. Children Amber, Samantha, Amy, Cynthia, and Robert. Her siblings Ronnie & wife Patty, Lia & Husband Mickey, and Robert & Wife Wendy. Grandchildren Alaina, Ava, Gabriel, Jayden, Caitlyn, Krysten, Mason, Makaleigh, Nickolas, and Mavis. Nieces and nephews Virginia, Dylan, Andrew, Elly, Ally, and Robert. She is preceded in death by her Mother Elly Van der Wal and brother Richard Downey and many others.

Marjorie was born on May 8th, 1957, in Germany to Jackie and Elly Downey. She graduated from West Springfield High School. She was married to Anthony Jones on June 28th, 1998 in Springfield Virginia. They spent 25 years together in marriage.

Her children remember her as kind, gentle, loving, and free-spirited. She always encouraged them to achieve their goals and always let them know how proud she was of them. She loved her dog Puppy. If you saw their mother, you saw her sidekick puppy. She enjoyed getting all her children together to make memories and see the grandchildren she adored. She was a social butterfly and made many friends with her ability to talk to anyone. She truly will be missed by so many lives she touched.

She loved to garden and put flowers out for her mother while living. She loved sci-fi shows and reading books. Marjorie also loved Harley-Davidsons and would ride any chance she could get. She occasionally worked as an accountant in Washington DC for a few different companies. She will be deeply missed by all her loved ones and all the lives she touched with her kind free wild spirit.

The family will be holding a celebration of life in August 2023 in the mountains. She wanted her ashes to be scattered with her mother and brother on the mountaintop. If interested in joining the family reach out to alaughton08@outlook.com.
